by

Professor Tony F Chan

President

The Hong Kong University of Science and Technology

Guest of Honour

Professor Tony F Chan assumed the presidency of HKUST on 1 September 2009. Professor Chan's scientific background is in Mathematics, Computer Science and Engineering. He received his PhD in Computer Science from Stanford University. He taught at Yale University before joining UCLA as Professor of Mathematics in 1986. He was appointed Chair of the Department of Mathematics in 1997 and served as Dean of Physical Science from 2001 to 2006. From 2006 to 2009, Professor Chan was Assistant Director of the Mathematical and Physical Sciences Directorate at the U.S. National Science Foundation (NSF).

Professor Chan is an elected member of the US National Academy of Engineering (NAE). He is also an elected Fellow and member of the Society of Industrial and Applied Mathematics (SIAM) and the American Association for the Advancement of Science. Professor Chan is one of ISI's most cited mathematicians.

Professor Chan is currently a member of the Board of Trustees of the King Abdullah University of Science and Technology (KAUST) in Saudi Arabia, member of President's Advisory Council of the Korea Advanced Institute of Science and Technology (KAIST), member of the Scientific Advisory Board of the University of Vienna, and member of the United States Committee of 100. Professor Chan is also a member of the Steering Committee of the Innovation and Technology Commission of the Hong Kong Government and a member of the Steering Committee of the Hong Kong Science and Technology Parks Corporation. He was a member of the Selection Committee for the Shaw Prize in Mathematical Sciences in 2012 and 2013.

Theme Year

The Theme Year Working Party of The Hong Kong Management Association is organizing the Twenty-ninth Susan Yuen Memorial Lecture as the highlight of this year's Theme, which is "Nurturing Human Capital for Dynamic Growth" 「培育人才 共迎發展」. Professor Tony Chan will speak on a topic related to the theme. These series of annual memorial lectures have been organized since 1985 in recognition of the late Mrs Susan Yuen's contribution to the business community of Hong Kong. Mrs Yuen was the Association's first chief executive. This special event will raise additional funds for the Susan Yuen Fellowship and Research Foundation established 38 years ago. The Foundation provides scholarships for in-service executives to attend short and practical courses.

Award for Excellence in Training and Development 2014

The presentation ceremony of the Award for Excellence in Training and Development 2014 will also be held during the occasion. The Award aims at giving public recognition to trainers and companies for the contribution that training and development can make to corporate results.
