INTRODUCTION

The Award for Excellence in Training and Development has been organized by the Human Resources Development Management Committee of The Hong Kong Management Association since 1990. It is the only award of its kind in Hong Kong that gives public recognition of achievements in training and development to individuals as well as companies, whether large or small and whatever the nature of their businesses or services.

WHAT IS THE SEMINAR ABOUT?

Finalists of Skills Training Category and Development Category of the Award for Excellence in Training and Development 2015 will present at the Final Judging which will be held at the Seminar on "Benchmark Your Training and Development Practices with Some of the Excellent Companies". They will share with you the secret of success of their training and development programmes. Participants of the seminar will vote for the Best Presentation Award.
