THE PROGRAMME

INTRODUCTION

Today, tourism and retail industry has become one of the major economic sectors of the economy of Hong Kong. This fast-growing industry is seen as a critical strategic area that will become even more important in the years ahead as the pace of economic growth of the Mainland continues and numbers of visitors from the Mainland increases. The successful retailers of the future will be those who possess marketing skills and knowledge of retail management and can adapt to environmental changes and also get adjusted to rapid and somewhat unpredictable changes in the consumer market.

OBJECTIVE

To provide systematic training to middle-level and front-line executives in the field of marketing and retail management as Hong Kong has evolved to become a major shopping destination for visitors from Mainland China.

DESIGNED FOR

The programme is suitable for operational and specialist managers in the marketing and retail field. They are likely to be middle-level managers and aiming to enhance their present knowledge and implement new skills and techniques within their organizations.

STRUCTURE

The diploma is a part-time programme. It includes seven modules, one of which is a management report. Apart from the report, each module consists of 10 sessions, comprising in total 30 hours. The six taught modules will comprise 180 hours. The curriculum is designed to develop a thorough knowledge of marketing and retail management in both theoretical and applied dimensions. The report helps to consolidate learning with on-the-job application. Case studies, group presentations and discussions will be used to facilitate learning.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Applicants should fulfil the following requirements:

1. be secondary school graduates (Form 5);
2. possess 2 or more years of working experience;

M7. Management Report

Submit a Report title

Write the Management Report under the supervision of the report guide appointed by the HKMA

The management report allows students to demonstrate their ability in applying their knowledge and skills to a real situation, usually within their own organization or based on a new business idea. Under the guidance of a supervisor, students are required to complete a comprehensive management plan including a logical sequence of analysis, decision rationale, steps of implementation, control and financial projection.

Course contents of all modules may be subject to change if required without prior notice.

COMPLETION OF A MODULE AND AWARD OF DIPLOMA

Satisfactory Completion of a Module

A minimum of 70% attendance is required for satisfactory completion of a module. Failure to do so will disqualify the student from sitting for the final written examination. Students must obtain an aggregate of 50% at least in the mid-term assessment and the final examination. For the management report, the student is required to achieve a pass grade in the report.

Completion of the Professional Diploma in Marketing and Retail Management Programme

Completion of the PDMR Programme requires a student after initial registration to pass the continuous assessments and final written examinations of all seven modules in two consecutive terms. A candidate who has satisfied all the requirements will be awarded the Professional Diploma in Marketing and Retail Management.

Unsatisfactory Performance in a Module

On failing any one module at the first attempt, the student may sit once only for the remedial examination in the following term by paying a fee. Participants who fail the remedial examination are allowed to retake the module by paying full module fees.

However, the maximum time for participants to complete the whole programme is 2 years.

EXEMPTION

Applicants who have studied similar courses before can apply for exemptions for up to 2 modules (Management Report is a non-exempted module) of the programme. For details, please contact the Customer Service Department on 2774-8500. The application form for exemption can be downloaded from our website (WWW.HKMA.ORG.HK/PD/PDMR).
